

What a worship night we had on Christmas Eve at Sonrise Christian Fellowship! Whether you joined us online or in person it was a special time and we were blessed to worship our Savior together.

Today, the Sunday after Christmas, we will be giving thanks together and, just like many homes, we will be doing it in the midst of some leftover clutter from Christmas Eve. One of our gifts at Sonrise over the past 35 years is our organist/pianist and dear friend, John Redford. As John enters into retirement we get this last Sunday to enjoy the gifts and talents the Lord has given him. There is lots God has been and is doing at Sonrise so don't be surprised to see a pastor or two looking a little cluttered too.

Join us at our live worship service which begins at 9 am in the Sanctuary located at 463 South Stage Coach Lane in Fallbrook and/or join us online by going to sonrisefallbrook.com then click "service".

We look forward to what and where the Lord is leading Sonrise Christian Fellowship in the coming year and pray that He would have you join us in the mission He has revealed to us...

BRINGING people into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, GATHERING them together as a worshipping community, GROWING them up as his lifelong disciples, and SENDING them out as ministers of the Gospel for the sake of the world.

God bless you all!
