

This “Psummer Stories,” series comes to an end on Sunday...let’s finish strong! Turn to Psalm 150 in your Bibles and let’s dive in.

ONE MORE TIME...let’s give thanks to all the folks that poured the Lord into our young ones that attended SonRise Kid’s Camp last week! From station directors, crew leaders, snack helpers, craft helpers, games friends, snack donators, registration team, decorators, and safety team and last but not least taker downers. We love you all!!!

Also, how awesome was Bolo’s and BBQ Father’s Day? Go GOD!

This is a great family event, (4 years and younger have nursery care available and other kids will participate in games and/or crafts at the table). So join us for Tacos and Jeopardy and be ready for some yummy food and a fantastic game all for the awesome price of FREE!!

The rest of SonRise Socials will take place during Thursdays in July (July 16th, 23rd, and 30th) from 6:00–7:30 PM. If you have never attended one of our Socials before, they are an absolute hoot! They are also a wonderful opportunity to invite friends, neighbors, and new faces into the warmth and fellowship of the SonRise community.
