IN SERMON NOTES

"Do not call anything impure that God has made clean."

— Acts 10:15

HOST'S TIP

Hospitality always seeks to humanize.

ONE THING

A single truth I want to remember this week...

TABLE TALK

LifeGroup Questions.

1. What stood out to you most from the sermon this week? Why?
.....
2. What did you learn about the food laws and cultural boundaries in Peter's world?
.....
3. Why do you think God used a vision about food to prepare Peter for people?
.....
4. What do Peter and Cornelius teach us about the way God prepares people before they ever meet each other?
.....
5. Peter discovered that God's table includes people from every nation. How does that truth expand your view of who God loves and welcomes?
.....
6. What might God be inviting you to "taste" or embrace that you've previously avoided because of culture, comfort, or fear?
.....
7. Where do you still see walls between people today, and what might it look like for the gospel to begin tearing those walls down?

SHOPPING LIST

A few ingredients for practicing hospitality this week.

- ☐ Read Acts 10 again this week and ask God to reveal any assumptions or boundaries in your heart that still need to change.
.....
- ☐ Share a meal, coffee, or conversation with someone from a different background, generation, or social circle than your own.
.....
- ☐ Learn one new thing about another person's story this week, and let curiosity replace assumption.

READ & REFLECT

Read Acts 10 again this week.
Ask God to reveal any "menus" in your life that keep you from loving others as He loves them.
